FRIDAY 5TH FEBRUARY 2021

THIS WEEK'S HIGHLIGHTS

Thank you to everyone who has taken part in our virtual children's mental health week this week, it was great to see so many children taking time within their busy days to express themselves through creativity and we really enjoyed finding out what tunes would feature on everyone's happiness playlist! Watch out on dojo next week for a little video of all our collective endeavours.

VALENTINE'S DAY VIRTUAL DISCO

It's time to p-a-r-t-y! On 14th February at 5.00pm, St Peter's PTFA will be hosting a Valentine's Day Virtual Disco via Zoom.

It's been a tough start to 2021, but better times are coming soon! So, what better way to celebrate by getting on your dancing clothes, snapping those glow-sticks and spending Valentine's Day boogieing to some timeless cheese!

To join the party, just fill out the web-form, play £3 for your family (instructions on how to pay are included in the form). We will then email you the Zoom link to join the disco!

FREE SCHOOL MEALS UPDATE

All those not in school and entitled to free school meals should have been receiving regular supermarket vouchers whilst school is closed. Please note that there is provision for vouchers during the half-term break but because these are coming from Staffordshire County Council directly they will be using a different voucher system, and a unique link will be forwarded to each family next week via dojo. If your circumstances have changed and you think you may be eligible to receive free school meals we urge you to check online using this address:
